Joe Tuczak absent, Dan Somers called to order 7pm

Introductions, Welcome Back!

Minutes from December approved

Julie-Treasures report

Still about $3000 to be paid out from 2017-2018 request year. It is the fence signage for softball, and the request from girls waterpolo.

Frank-Admin report

Incoming freshman activities coming up.

Wednesday is curriculum

2/21/19 is the activities fair. Half is the traditional open house, and half will be a panel discussion.

We will sell apparel

Summer Camp registration opens the Monday after Spring Break

The district sets the pricing for the camps. Frank meets with all head coaches to work out the times. They are going to advertise more with the middle schools this year.

IHSA also has summer black out weeks, they are: the 1st week out of school, the week of July 4th, and the 1st week in August.

The 1st day of school is 8/12/19, and also the 1st day for fall sports.

New bylaws for football: No conferences, schools will play other schools of like size. Does not affect PHS schedule very much.

Activity night panel will include fine arts and athletics

Thank you for the new banners in the foyer.

Apparel-

Will sell 2/21/19-Girls soccer working; need 8 kids around 5:45, starts at 6

Will also sell at TPC Parent night 4/4/19

The cash that comes in is what Kathy Spicer uses to purchase new spirit wear. The CC payment go directly into the Booster account. At the beginning of sales, the cash is counted. CC sales are high.

Does Kathy Spicer intend to stay? We think so.

We still need an on-line presence.

Re-U-Knight have an end of year drop off.

Boosterpalooza-Andrew

Baskets due at Tracy Ferrara house by 2/17/19 with the form filled out.

Sofa Kings is the band that night

Baskets are donated by the teams, and they are auctioned off.

There is also a 50/50 raffle

Send team pictures/highlights to boosterpaloozapictures@gmail.com so Christina Barbaric can load them to her slide show.

Andrew has a photographer that will be there that night.
