III. Executive Board Report

(My Zoom connection went out at this point)

IV. PHS Athletic Department and Administration Report/Frank Mirandola:

(*7:08pm – Zoom connection restored)

Email for spring sports spectators – outlined what all the spring sports can expect for spectators. Wear a mask indoor or outdoor. No public invited to these events. 50 is the indoor cap, outdoor is 20% capacity. Paper tickets for football. Limited school section will be allowed. Home games only, can't attend away games. This does not apply to football. Open venues for summer sports will be treated more like cross country or tennis, asked to social distance and be mindful. Senior events – working on in person graduation, outdoor prom, academic awards night, parade. Question: Senior Athletic Breakfast? Look at having some type of recognition. May 1st or May 2nd, maybe push it later because of the different sports schedule this year.

V. Standing Committee Updates:

- A. Apparel - $4725 in sales/55 orders
Another sale maybe organized for the second week in May.
- B. Website/Facebook Update - Blanket sale link is still on the website
- C. Twitter -
- D. Re-U-Knight Service Project – on hold for awhile because of Covid and busy time for coaches
- E. Golf Outing -
- F. Boosterpalooza - No event this year

VI. Athletic Team Updates

*Boys Basketball– celebrating seniors on Friday night

*Girls Gymnastics – last Thursday had senior night for varisty seniors and took MSL title. Saturday is conference.

*Girls Soccer – 50 cards for cancer patients on zoom together, very excited to start the first time back on the field in 23 months on April 5

*Boys Swimming – last Friday was senior night, Saturday was frosh soph MSL conference won by PHS, this Saturday is varisty MSL conference

*Boys Baseball – zoom meeting, numbers are very large, tryouts start the first week after spring break. A request was made by baseball to expedite the process for an urgent need. Frank says the Exec Board would look into any unique circumstances.

*Girls Basketball – season winding down, fun season. Varsity beat everyone but Hersey. JV team is undefeated. Tomorrow is girl's senior night against Wheeling. Please watch tomorrow night on Knight TV. Commentating is so fun to listen to, kids have done a great job!

*Girls Volleyball – tryouts just starting today.

*Girls Bowling – wraps up this week, third place right now. Great season, four girls in the top 20 in the conference. Thanks to the streaming video.

*Dance Team – wrapped up the season qualified for state, placed second in MSL. Very positive season. Move into poms season now.
